ASISA announces departure of CEO

The Board of Directors of the Association for Savings and Investment South Africa (ASISA) has announced that Busisa Jiya, CEO of ASISA, will be leaving by mutual agreement at the end of December 2023.

Jiya was appointed as CEO of ASISA on 1 February 2022, following the retirement of Leon Campher. He vacates his position to pursue other opportunities.

“The Board would like to thank Busisa for his contribution to transitioning ASISA into the next phase as ASISA celebrates 15 years of existence.”
